

Lehman Family in Puerto Rico

New church building before any painting or renovations

Morning devotion before the work day.

Abigail and Noah helped paint the Jerusalem cross on the wall behind the altar

Hannah helped with much of the wall art in the new sanctuary.

Jose, Pablo and Stacey painting the back wall behind the altar

We had a joint service on Pentecost. Many people traveled from Ponce to San Juan to see the dedication of the new building and to welcome the new members. Lunch was served afterwards to about 40 people!
